

An Honest Sale for An Honest Purpose.

The crowds that have so far attended this 33 1-3 per cent discount rebuilding sale testify to its legitimacy—and the confidence you have placed in us. We want room—lots of it—and as quick as possible. When the workmen start there'll be a good deal of dirt and dust—and it's to escape this that we're sacrificing our stock. 'Tisn't a few "what-we-want-you-to-have" kinds we're offering—but our entire stock—black goods and all. Pitch in. Pick out what you want—for yourself or boy—all you have to pay is two-thirds of its marked price. This discount of 33 1-3 per cent eats up all our profit—and a large part of the cost—but we don't consider a loss when we have a purpose in view. The only goods reserved are the very light summer goods—such as Alpaca, &c.—outside of these everything in the house without reserve is subject to the discount.

HIS LEG CRUSHED.

Little Harry Rapp Falls Under a Cable Car.

Harry Rapp, a twelve-year-old newsboy, had his left leg crushed this morning near the corner of 30th and M streets by the wheels of a cable car.

The accident happened to the little fellow while engaged in selling papers. He jumped from car 212 on the inner side just as a train going in the opposite direction shot by. Whether the boy was struck slightly by the passing train and thrown under the one he had just gotten off, or whether in his hurry he threw himself under the car, is not known. There was a shivering "ugh!" Non passengers in both as he fell, the cars came to a dead stop, and they dragged a bleeding little form forth. The left leg was crushed at the ankle, and the right knee. They took the boy into Brice's drug store, and in a short time two physicians were hard at work upon the injured child.

After preliminary attention had been bestowed the maimed body of the boy was removed to the home of his mother, Mrs. J. F. Moran. They laid the little fellow on a sofa, his leg bound to a board, and dressed it. Throughout it all he bore up with wonderful courage. At times he kept so quiet as to appear asleep, but, as the physicians came, he was given him. The physicians stated this morning to the Star reporter that there was hardly any doubt that an amputation would be necessary, for the bones below the knee were completely crushed.

Harry Rapp is the son of Wm. Rapp, an employe of the Domestic bakery, at 728 10th street, and resides at the corner of 26th and I northwest. He was sent for as soon as the injured son was brought home. Rapp 224 was in charge of Gripman Geo. Dundee and Conductor R. E. Mather.

DEFAULTER TAYLOR RETURNS.

Says That He Could Not Have Been Caught in Years.

A Pierre, S. W., mechanic says: Defaulting Treasurer, W. Taylor reached here today. He expected that a special term of the circuit court would be in session and that he would be at once sentenced, but Judge Gaffey's absence prevented. The judge will probably call a special session Saturday, however, for the purpose. Taylor makes a statement in regard to his flight, in which he says:

"I did not see a detective during the entire time, and none saw me. They claim they did not prosecute a vigorous search, and while I traveled slowly they were still more dilatory. They did not trace me at all beyond Jamaica, but, I understand, are still in the harbor. There is a false clue which I laid for them. I did not go to South America at all and the reports of detectives about my wanderings among the islands are pure moonshine as well as much of what they told earlier. I finally decided to come in and give myself up. All reports about my wanderings among the islands are untrue. No one asked me to surrender. The state had no idea where I was, and could not have caught me in years."

COMMENCEMENT SEASON

A DOUBLE CEREMONY.

Silver Jubilee and St. Cecilia's Commencement.

Metzerott's Hall was the scene yesterday afternoon, as announced in The Star, of the twenty-seventh annual commencement exercises of St. Cecilia's Academy, and in connection with these exercises the silver jubilee of the Rev. Father J. O'Brien was celebrated. The program was an interesting one, in which many of the pupils participated. The feature of the exercises was the part of the silver jubilee celebration. The members of the class of '95—Miss Katherine Radcliffe, Miss Augusta Smith, Miss Mary McCormick and Miss Katherine Dobbins—conducted the jubilee exercises, while the members of the main class showered flowers on their pastor. Miss Radcliffe carried a blue banner, on which was inscribed "Jubilee." Miss McCormick carried a "bouquet" of flowers, while Miss Smith presented a silver tray, on which was the children's offering—silver, gold and copper coins.

The offering, an original poem, was delivered by Miss Dobbins. When the regular program had been finished Father O'Brien took the pulpit to deliver a sermon on him, and honors were distributed as follows:
